ANNUAL HIGHLIGHTS

Serving Crown Heights with Compassion, Reliability, and Care

Over the past year, the Crown Heights Jewish Community Council has continued to serve as a central address for help, guidance, and stability for our community. Through daily intake, case management, home visits, advocacy, and direct assistance, our team supported thousands of neighbors across a wide range of needs.

Looking Ahead

As we move into 2026, CHJCC remains committed to proactively responding to urgent community needs while strengthening organizational systems, expanding access to essential services, and deepening partnerships across the neighborhood. Through thoughtful planning and responsible growth, CHJCC aims to build long-term stability, security, and opportunity for Crown Heights families and individuals, ensuring the community is supported today and prepared for the future.

Community Representation

CHJCC is seeking committed community members to serve on local boards, councils, and neighborhood associations representing Crown Heights and advocating for neighborhood priorities. Community representation ensures local voices are heard in decision-making spaces that impact daily life. If you can serve in this capacity or would like to learn how, please reach out so CHJCC can guide, coordinate, and support your involvement.
